

THE UNIVERSITY OF HONG KONG

OFFER OF ADMISSION - TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Admission is offered under the following conditions:

- The candidate agrees that the University may, at its absolute discretion exercisable at any time, request him/her to produce the originals of transcripts, certificates, references, reports, assignments, publications and any other relevant documents in support of and/or in connection with the application and/or admission regardless of whether such documents have been previously submitted to it. If there is any discrepancy, misrepresentation, forgery, falsification, plagiarism or other irregularities in respect of the application and/or the above documents which the University deems to be material, the University has the right immediately to withdraw the offer of admission, treat any acceptance of the offer as null and void, and terminate the enrolment and student status in the University. The composition fee and other fees paid will not be refunded.
- The candidate understands that he/she will not be allowed to formally register with the University until all the required original/official documents have been submitted and verified to the satisfaction of the University. The University also reserves the right to withdraw the offer of admission if the required documents are not submitted to us by the time of student registration in August 2018. If the candidate fails to register with the University as a result, the composition fee and other fees paid will not be refunded.
- The candidate understands that he/she is liable to pay the composition fee upon acceptance of the offer and that fees once paid are not refundable. The candidate also understands that there are differential composition fees for local and non-local students, being HK$42,100 p.a. (provisional) and HK$161,000 p.a. respectively for students entering in 2018-2019, and that the University is the final authority to determine local or non-local student status in accordance with the Government's definition. Non-local students are defined as persons entering Hong Kong for the purpose of education with a student visa/entry permit issued by the Director of Immigration. All others are regarded as local students.
- The candidate understands that concurrent registration by a student of this University for another post-secondary qualification either at this University or another institution without the approval of the Senate given in advance is prohibited by University regulation and that breaching this regulation will result in discontinuation of studies at this University. Any University fees paid will not be refunded.
- The candidate agrees to obey all rules and regulations of the University insofar as they apply to him/her as a member of the University, and that his/her personal data can be used by the University for all academic and administrative purposes in accordance with the Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance as set out in the Personal Information Collection Statement.
- The candidate understands that the University of Hong Kong is a “public body” and is therefore subject to the provisions of the Prevention of Bribery Ordinance.
