Hi there subscriber,

This week, Hong Kong was in full bloom with its Chinese New Year celebrations. Local and international residents alike flocked to the city’s harbor for the famed fireworks display, where ancient customs and modern marvels were blended together. Crowds filled the streets for the International Chinese New Year Night Parade that hosted performers in colorful costumes and larger than life floats!

At this festive season, we wish you a very Happy Chinese New Year, or as we would say here, Kung Hei Fat Choy!

Are you ready for the year of Rooster? In the coming weeks and months, as you prepare for your undergraduate studies this fall, we will do our bit through these HKU&U series to get you ready for HKU.

Before we get into details below, make sure you have read through important information on your offer of admission here.

Preparing for HKU

What is our HKU&U series all about?

We’re glad you asked! We’re all for making informed decisions, and to help you make the decision that is best for you, look out for our monthly newsletters, information session webinars and LIVE Q&A chats, mock lectures and much more! Please refer here for a summary.

What should you keep in mind over the next few months?

We will cover the A-Zs of preparing for HKU in the

---

Upcoming HKU & U Webinars!

Click the image to register!

THE ESSENTIAL

2017 Feb 22 (Wed)

Familiarizing yourself with HK & HKU

2017 March 18 (Wed)

Hall of Residence

2017 April 26 (Wed)

---

On being the world’s 3rd most “international” university

“Today, some of the most talented students in the world apply to join HKU, some as undergraduates, and even more as postgraduates. They are attracted by the University’s reputation, particularly for teaching and learning, its world-leading employment record over the last decade, and by the buzz of Hong Kong, coming months. Don’t worry - we’ll make sure you have all the information you need at just the right time. Take a look at the timeline below:

We hope this helps. Lastly, let’s keep in touch! Do stay connected with us, HKU news and fellow HKU students below.

Keep a lookout for more emails from us!

Cheers,

Admissions Office

Stay Connected!

one of the world’s most popular student cities according to a number of recent rankings...

These are truly exciting times for the University, its staff, and, of course, its students.”

- Professor John A. Spinks
Director of Undergraduate Admissions and International Student Exchange

For more information, click here.