It might be helpful for you to know a little about the programme: It is a one-year full-time or two-year part-time, interdisciplinary postgraduate degree. Students from a wide variety of backgrounds, including Engineering, Science and the Social Sciences are accepted. This programme is about 70 students each year and students are expected to participate in class discussion. The programme involves a considerable commitment of time, as students usually have to attend two three-hour sessions on weekday evenings, and lecture or field trip may be occasionally held on Saturdays. Written work forms an important part of the programme, including a dissertation of approximately 10,000 words. (All written and verbal communication is in English).
