1. Applications are invited for admission in September 2018 to the curriculum leading to the degree of Master of Science in Construction Project Management (with/without a major option) (full-time and part-time mode).

2. The curriculum extends normally over one year of full-time or two years of part-time study.

3. To be eligible for admission to the programmes, a candidate shall satisfy both the University Admission Requirements and the Programme Specific Requirements as listed below:

   (a) comply with the General Regulations and the Regulations for Taught Postgraduate Curricula;
   (b) hold a Bachelor’s degree of this University or a qualification of equivalent standard from this University or another comparable institution accepted for this purpose;
   (c) for a candidate who is seeking admission on the basis of a qualification from a university or comparable institution outside Hong Kong of which the language of teaching and/or examination is not English, shall satisfy the University English language requirement applicable to higher degrees as prescribed under General Regulation G2(b); and
   (d) satisfy the examiners in a qualifying examination if required.

   (For details, please refer to http://www.arch.hku.hk/programmes/rec/master-of-science-in-construction-project-management/)

4. Composition fee for MSc(CPM) with or without any major option:

   Full-time        HK$153,600 per programme* (payable per semester)^
   Part-time        HK$153,600 per programme* (payable per semester)^

* Minimum fee payable, subject to approval for the intake of the academic year 2018-19.
^ Payment is based on the number of courses enrolled in each semester. The composition fee is for the intake of the academic year 2018-19 only.

5. Application fee of HK$300, which is non-refundable and non-transferable, should be submitted and paid at http://www.hku.hk/tpg/.

6. The closing date for application is 12 noon, 31 January 2018 (Wednesday).

7. You are required to submit certified true copies or originals of all supporting documents by post to the Faculty of Architecture (Address: Room 415, 4/F, Knowles Building, The University of Hong Kong, Pokfulam Road, Hong Kong) immediately after submitting your application, and in any case no later than 31 January 2018. You should write down the application number and your name on the postal envelopes/parcels. Uploading of supporting documents to the online application system is NOT required.

8. Applicants may be invited for an interview or sit for a qualifying examination, to be invited within 3 months after the application deadline.

9. The University should be able to inform applicants of the application result no later than the end of July 2018. If you do not hear your result by 31 July 2018, please contact Mr Carlos Lau at the Faculty of Architecture (Email: carloslc@hku.hk).

October 2017
Hong Kong’s First MSc Programme in Construction Project Management

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th>Full Time</th>
<th>Part Time</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1 Year</td>
<td>2 Years</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Offering Options for

- Majors in different areas
- Professional accreditation by CIOB/RICS/HKIS/PAQS

- MSc (Construction Project Management) (without any major option)^
- MSc (Construction Project Management) majoring in:
  - Construction Law and Dispute Resolution^*
  - Quantity Surveying^*
  - International Real Estate^*

* The MSc programme (with or without any major option) is accredited by the Chartered Institute of Building (CIOB) and the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors (RICS) in the UK.

* The programme majoring in Quantity Surveying is also professionally accredited by the Hong Kong Institute of Surveyors (HKIS) and the Pacific Association of Quantity Surveyors (PAQS).

The MSc(CPM) programme provides an advanced education across the whole range of construction project management from conception of the project through to completion. Through the majors students have the opportunity to focus on selected aspects in the process. The programme is orientated towards the particular circumstances of Hong Kong, China and the Asia Pacific region.

All taught courses will be delivered in semi-intensive mode (weekdays’ evenings and weekends) over a period of not more than 12 weeks.

To complete the curriculum, students may opt to take three taught courses in lieu of completing a dissertation.
MSc (Construction Project Management)

Law for the real estate and construction industry (RECO6042)
Management theory and projects (RECO7074)
Procurement systems (RECO6028)
Real estate and construction management practice (RECO6007)
Occupational health, safety and well-being in construction (RECO7079)
Project workshop (CPM) (RECO6058)

Any 6 elective courses

2 elective courses
Modern developments in the law of construction contracts (RECO6018)
Alternative dispute resolution (RECO6031)
Law and practice of arbitration (RECO6032)
Construction claims (RECO7091)

Research seminar (RECO6046)
Dissertation (RECO6020)

2 elective courses
MSc (CPM) majoring in Construction Law and Dispute Resolution

Modern developments in the law of construction contracts (RECO6018)
Economics for professionals (RECO6003)
Construction economics (RECO6004)
Development case studies (QS) (RECO6060)
Construction business case studies (RECO7077)

1 elective course
OR
Construction for professionals (RECO7086)

MSc (CPM) majoring in Quantity Surveying

MSc (CPM) majoring in International Real Estate

Real estate business case studies (RECO7078) or Greater China real estate (RECO7092)
PLUS
Approved courses offered by foreign institutes (12 credits)

MSc (CPM) majoring in International Real Estate

Professional Institution | Accredited Curriculum
--- | ---
RICS, CIOB | MSc in Construction Project Management and all majoring options
HKIS, PAQS | MSc in Construction Project Management majoring in Quantity Surveying (subject to HKIS re-accreditation in 2017)

* Students with a non-construction-technology background will be required to enroll Construction for professionals (RECO7086)

For reference only: the offer of and requirements for a major may change from year to year